

Messiah College Concert Choir

The Concert Choir is the premiere choral ensemble of the Department of Music at Messiah College, Grantham, PA. Under the direction of Linda L. Tedford, the Choir has enjoyed critical acclaim as a result of performances and recordings. The Concert Choir has toured extensively in the United States and abroad, including Ireland, Austria, the Czech Republic, and Italy.

In addition to touring, the Concert Choir maintains an active recording schedule, and has produced ten CD's. The choir has been the featured choir for Kalmus Publications and Mark Foster publications on internationally distributed CD's. In addition to campus and community concerts, the Messiah College Concert Choir performs frequently with the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra.
